PARENT TEACHER CONFERENCES

DEVIL PRIDE WINNERS

TITLE 1 RECOGNITION

UPCOMING EVENTS

It's hard to believe marking period 1 has come to a quick close. Currently, grades are complete and reports cards are being processed! With that comes our parent/teacher conferences, so I want to make sure you have all the pertinent dates and times. Conference days with teachers this year will be held on Thursday, November 15th from 5-7 P.M. and on Friday, November 16th from 1:00-3:30 P.M. Reports cards will be distributed November 14th prior to conferences.

Parent-Teacher Conferences can be a great way for parents and teachers to discuss the academic and social progress of their child. Additionally, parent-teacher conferences can be somewhat stressful for all parties involved. Some preparation prior to conferences can be helpful and relieve some of that stress. Emailing the teacher in advance with any concerns can allow for a thorough and thoughtful response. Make a written list of your main questions and concerns. If you run out of time, ask that any unaddressed items or concerns be responded to by e-mail. Don't forget to praise the successes and progress your child has made, and to discuss any areas that may need improvement.

I look forward to seeing everyone during Parent Teacher Conference time!
